The image shows a musical score for a piece titled "Four Hundred Thirty-One". The score is written for piano and consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats). The piece begins at measure 21. The treble staff features a melodic line with eighth and quarter notes, followed by a long, sustained note in the final measure. The bass staff provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines, including a prominent bass line in the final measure. The score concludes with a double bar line. A small "21" is written above the first measure of the treble staff. A "sub" marking is present below the final measure of the bass staff.
